

CINEQUEST™

CINEQUEST CALL FOR FALL 2009 WRITING INTERNS

Time Commitment:

- October 2009 through March 2010
- 10-15 hours per week

Skills Required:

- PC Experience (email, MS Office) required
- Excellent writing / editing skills (Please provide writing samples)
- Detail oriented
- Self motivated
- Effective communicator
- Outgoing, social personality

Tasks may include:

- Creative writing for festival films
- Marketing writing for film in festival program guide
- Assisting Publicity team with newsletter production (writing/editing component)
- Writing / editing press releases
- Grant writing
- Editing and proofing

Please visit www.cinequest.org for more information. For consideration, please email resume and cover letter to interns@cinequest.org.

Cinequest internships are unpaid internships. Festival Passes and/or Course Credit will be given in lieu of monetary compensation.

Empowering the Maverick www.cinequest.org

Cinequest's first 20 years showcased Maverick artists and technologies. Now we unveil the next phase: implementation of premier artistry and innovation while continuing to discover and connect.

- Cinequest Mavericks Studio: producing and distributing A-list movies, episodic television and new media.
- Picture the Possibilities: empowering underserved youth with innovative tools, mentors, and training needed to turn their stories into film, while challenging them to drive change in their local community and around the world.
- Cinequest Film Festival 20, February 23 – March 7, 2010: discovering Maverick films and innovations while connecting artists, innovators and film lovers.